

Robert L. Brantley, MBA, Ph.D.

Robert L. Brantley holds a B.S. degree in Business & Economics from Illinois College in Jacksonville, Illinois; an MBA degree in Finance & Urban Affairs from the Northwestern University Graduate School of Management in Chicago, Illinois; and an honorary doctorate degree in Christian/Biblical counseling from the Philadelphia Bible College in Baltimore, Maryland. Bob Brantley has done post-graduate study in Non-Formal Education at the Northwestern University School of Law in Chicago; and in Development Economics at Howard University in Washington, DC. Bob is nearing the final stages toward a Ph.D. degree in Church Administration at Trinity Theological Seminary in Newburgh, Indiana. Brantley is a Certified Christian Conciliator by the Institute for Christian Conciliation in Billings, Montana.

He is an ordained Minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and serves as Elder, Pastoral Counselor, and Clergy Coach to the Body of Christ in the Greater Baltimore area. Minister Brantley has more than 25 years of experience as a strategic planner, management and financial consultant, organizational developer, economic development adviser, and leadership trainer to businesses and non-profit organizations, nationally and internationally; and is a member of the Christian Management Association and the American Association of Christian Counselors. Bob is the founder and International director of the ICCC (International Center for Clergy Coaching) based at Near Haven in Upperco, Maryland.